

AEWPP Private Public Partnership Master Class
Sunday, August 25, 9:30-13:30 at the World Water Week 2019

Alternative Service Delivery options for water infrastructure project planning
Sharing best practices from an African perspective

Draft Agenda

- 8:30 Participant arrival, coffee and registration
- 9:00 Session 1: Introducing the PPP concept –definitions used around the world
Trainer: Andre Kruger, AEWPP Financial Consultant
Topics included:
- Life cycle costs
  - Does PPPs equal privatisation?
  - What is and is not a PPP?
  - Where in the world and in which sectors are PPPs being used successfully?
  - Number of African countries having PPP acts or policies?
  - Number of African PPPs and in which sectors?
- 10:00 Session 2: Part I - PPP Process Cycle
Trainer: Ziyanda Mpkama, Programme Manager, SIWI
Topics included:
- Who regulates PPP procurement?
  - Project identification process
  - Appraisal phase
  - Structuring and drafting process
  - Tender phase
  - Contract management: Construction, operations and hand back phases.
- 10:30 Session 2: Part II - How does the public sector comparator (PSC) work and key concepts:
Trainer: Ziyanda Mpkama, Programme Manager, SIWI
Topics included:
- Value for money and the assumptions?
  - Risk transfer and the risk matrix?
  - Affordability over the life of the asset?
  - PSC pitfalls
- 11:00 Break to pick up light lunch (lunch in parallel to Session 3)

11:15 Session 3: Case study: Work groups to explore the basic structure of an existing Bulk Water PPP in Rwanda

Trainer: Lydie Menouer, AEWPP Financial Consultant

Topics included:

- How to apply the blended finance concept in traditional and or PPP projects?
- General causes for project failure?
- Does government need to guarantee the payments to the private sector?

12:15 Session 4: Conclusion Q&A: Summarising the key principles and focus on the fact that not all infrastructure projects should be conceptualised as PPPs.

Trainer: Xanani Baloyi, Programme Officer, SIWI

13:00 Evaluation Form Completion

13:15 Awarding of completion certificates

Anton Earle, Director, Africa Regional Centre, SIWI

13:25 Closing Statements

13:30 End of Masterclass, all participants walk together to related AEWPP Showcase event